VALUE CHAIN CROPS: TURMERIC, PEPPER

Malappattam Spices Farmer Producer Company Ltd. (FPC) began its journey in value-added product manufacturing by outsourcing its processing activities. Despite initially relying on external facilities, the FPC has consistently remained committed to its core mission: delivering pure and high-quality spice powders to its customers. Over time, the company strategically advanced to the stage of processing these spices using its own machinery, which was acquired through the scheme. Currently, the FPC is preparing for the inauguration of its processing unit, marking a significant milestone in its development.

In addition to processing and selling spice powders, Malappattam Spices FPC is actively involved in a variety of other business activities. These include the sale of essential agricultural inputs, the procurement and sale of paddy from local farmers, and the distribution of pure honey. The success of Malappattam Spices FPC can be largely attributed to the leadership of its chairman, Shri. Pushpajan P. His significant influence in the local community, coupled with his leadership skills, has played a vital role in elevating the FPC to its current stature. He has been strongly supported by the company's CEO, Shri. Safdher P K, and the Board of Directors, who have collectively driven the company's growth and performance.

FPC Cumulative turnover of
Rs. 53 Lakhs

Way Forward: As Malappattam Spices FPC looks to the future, it remains focused on its mission of providing pure and high-quality spice powders. The company aims to create a distinct brand by processing spices that are directly procured from farmers in its own newly established processing unit. This approach not only ensures quality but also enhances the traceability and authenticity of the products, setting the stage for the FPC to build a strong and recognizable brand in the market.

CEO: Vineeth Kumar M

DATE OF REGISTRATION:30-05-2022 CIN: U01404KL2022PTC075894

VALUE CHAIN CROPS:

Ranipuram Farmer Producer Company Ltd. is strategically located in the picturesque tourist hotspot of Ranipuram, nestled in the Western Ghats of Kasaragod district. This area is not only a well-known destination for nature lovers but also a significant agricultural hub, particularly for the cultivation of plantation crops and fruits.

Ranipuram FPC stands out as one of the more successful Farmer Producer Companies in the region, boasting a commendable turnover from its trading activities. The FPC's current business operations involve the procurement and sale of a variety of agricultural produce, including coconut, areca nut, rubber, cashew, nutmeg, and pepper. Additionally, the FPC manages an input center, providing essential supplies to local farmers.

A key figure in the success of Ranipuram FPC is its chairman, Shri P. Rajan. Highly respected in the local community, Shri Rajan has been instrumental in steering the FPC towards financial stability. His visionary leadership is exemplified by his initiative to begin trading operations, which laid a solid foundation for the FPC. Under his guidance, the FPC is now poised to expand its operations by establishing a processing unit, further enhancing its economic sustainability.

FPC Cumulative turnover of Rs. 3.12 Crore

Way Forward: Ranipuram FPC is planning to launch a jackfruit processing and pulping unit in the near future. Given the abundant production of jackfruit in the region, this new venture is expected to create high-value products from a fruit that has historically been underutilized in the area. This initiative will not only add a new revenue stream for the FPC but also provide additional income opportunities for local farmers, thus contributing to the overall economic development of the community.
